Selectmen's Meeting

JULY 19th - Virginia Arral

In response to a July 1 request sent to the State Department of Public Works seeking to have the speed on Route 6 reduced, Selectmen were notified Tuesday, July 19, by Acting District Highway Engineer R. A. Smith that "following a check of the area of Route 6 where the speed limit is set at 50 MPH, state radar checks confirm that 50 MPH is the 85 percentile speed in the area and is properly posted".

The engineer further noted, "In Massachusetts, numerical limits of speed are based on ideal conditions. It remains up to each motorist to reduce his speed for unfavorable weather and visibility, for heavy traffic volume, for sub-standard vehicle conditions, and for his own driving deficiencies".

REQUEST FOR POLICE PATROL BOAT

Police Chief James Moran requested Selectmen consider having a Police Patrol Boat. He noted that Officer Kenneth Pacheco has volunteered his boat and his services at no cost to the town.

The board accepted the offer, subject to liability insurance coverage. Carol Adams, executive secretary, will check into the insurance coverage for a policeman during volunteer work.

Pacheco has indicated he is willing to ride around the harbor at night following his regular tour of duty. Selectman James F. Huntoon noted he had spoken to Lloyd Haskell, harbor master, and that Haskell feels it would be a good idea and could help curb some of the problems in the harbor at night.

A letter will be sent to Pacheco thanking him for his offer and commending him for his civic interest.

MONEY TRANSFERRED FROM RESERVE FUND

Selectmen voted to transfer a total of $4,048.89 from the Reserve Fund to the following acounts: Town Hall expenses, $112.60; Dog Officer expenses, $155.24; Town Counsel expenses, $1789.05; A new condition, 1982, 50 HP motor for the shellfish warden, $1992.00.

ent motor has been repaired many times, but that after the most recent breakdown, it was determined to be beyond repair. The motor was purchased at cost from McLean's Mattapoisett Boatyard.

Selectmen Chairman John N. DeCosta said the transfers will have to be approved by the Finance Committee. This will establish a new procedure, with Selectmen reviewing and approving transfers first, then going to the Finance Committee.

PERSONNEL INFORMATION

As the result of legal action taken in 1980 by the Sippican Sentinel of Marion to obtain the names of applicants for the job of executive secretary to the Board of Selectmen, the board received notification from the Secretary of State's Office, Public Records Division, informing it "that the list of applicants is personnel information which is of a personal nature and which is related to a particular individual. Therefore, this information is exempt from disclosure".

Selectman Huntoon recommended the Board send a letter to the Sippican Sentinel acknowledging the decision.

PARKING RESTRICTIONS END OF BR. IS. RD.

Selectman DeCosta read a letter from Police Chief James Moran regarding a notice sent to residents of Brant Beach informing them of parking restrictions at the end of Brandt Island Road.

The Brandt Island Association plans to post signs restricting parking at the lower end of Brandt Island Road to the jetty. The Association wants to enforce the restriction with a $20 fine for violation, enforced by the Police Department.

Town Clerk Lois Bassett informed Chief Moran that the town owns the 40 foot road way from the stone pillars to the jetty and that "no way could the town enforce the fine and regulations on parking in that area. The only law the town can enforce is the 'no-drinking in a public place'".

According to Selectman Suzan, Harvey Blanchette, chairman of the Brandt Island

Marion Visiting Nurses

MVN ASSOCIATION FUND DRIVE

Sunday, July 31st, and Monday, August 1st, are the days scheduled this year for the Marion Visiting Nurse Association's Fund Drive. Volunteers will canvass the Town of Marion door-to-door to ask for donations. If you are not at home either day, contributions may be sent to Mrs. Gordon Goodwin, Box 364, Marion, MA. 02738.

The MVNA is a self-supporting certified agency providing home health care to the residents of Marion and Rochester, regardless of ability to pay. In spite of increased costs to the MVNA, in order to comply with various state regulations, it has maintained its high standard of service. The response of the towns to its annual fund-raising campaign has helped the MVNA continue with the level of excellence expected by the residents. Now in its 69th year the MVNA once again asks for the generous support of the entire community.

In addition to nursing visits and home health aides, the MVNA provides through

The Second "Error in Judgment"

Editorial, DCJ

When Richard Nixon threatened the Presidency of the United States by betraying his oath, Congress was properly outraged because the integrity of the executive office was in jeopardy. Pressure from Congress forced Nixon's resignation and restored the confidence in the Presidency. Nixon does not matter, history will take care of him. The Presidency does matter. Congress knew then that the office must transcend any individual.

Not so when the House of Representatives examines itself at a reported cost of a million dollars of the taxpayers' money. In this instance, the individuals are more valued than the office they occupy.

Congress originates law. Law is based on precedent. Congress has now established the precedent that homosexual and heterosexual seduction of teenage children, while to be censured, is nevertheless to be tolerated. Does this precedent apply to all of the United States? Does it apply to all adults in position of authority over children? Can homosexuals be banned from the armed forces and at the same time sit as members of Congress?

Questions pile one on top of the other unraveling a fabric that has bound the United States together for more than 200 years.

A request for two resignations might well have been a cleaner solution and far less damaging to the House of Representatives and the United States as a whole.

July 4th Road Race

This year saw the 13th running of the Mattapoisett Road Race come to a great climax with a festive air and great excitement permeating the atmosphere surrounding the race.

The race committee had several goals is mind with the planning of the race. The first was to make it better. To this goal the course was changed. A time clock placed directly over the finish line (a la New York City Marathon). The starting of the race by the 4th Regiment of Royal Artillery for a more auspicious start! Second was the raising of more money for our scholarship program.

I am proud to say these goals were achieved. We will continue to improve every year with your help. (Better doesn't mean bigger.)

Last year the race dispersed six one hundred dollar scholarships to six schools. Receiving the scholarships were: Linda Couto and Mary Spang, Old Rochester Regional; Douglas Brown, Fairhaven; Sean McDevitt, New Bedford; Kenneth Harrison, Greater New Bedford Regional Voke-Tech; Mike Richards, Bishop Stang; JoAnn Mathews, Dartmouth.

This year the committee has agreed to double the scholarships from six to twelve of one hundred dollars each. These scholarships are given to the schools and the athletic departments make the decisions as to who receives them with the only stipulation being that the person (boy and girl) be included in running. Good luck to the recipients!

The race really gets going in January with a meeting of the committee to signal the beginning of a tremendous amount of work for this dedicated group. This year the Mattapoisett Track Club hosted the event so the committee was enlarged to spread the work around. Maurice "Mudgie" Tavares is president of this fine group of interested individuals but anyone can be on the race committee and in fact we welcome everyone who would want to be on it to join us. It's awful easy to sit back and "suggest" ways to improve the race!

Join the committee and help with the awesome amount of work to be done!

There were four hundred and seventy-three runners signing up with three hundred and ninety-seven finishing. This represents an increase of seven finishing over last year.

With the change of course there must be adjustments in safety precautions. Chief Jim Moran and men as usual rose to the occasion. Special thanks go to the four motorcycle men who donated their time and machines to the race and safety of the runners. The big concern was Route 6. We had it made with the breakdown lane. Who could foresee the state moving so fast!

The positive comments far outweighed the negative ones. The runners had accolades for the workers and people who helped and cheered them on. There were many things that happened during the race. Bill Benedetti who stopped to help Stephanie Hiller in her minutes of need, literally ending his race! Peter Hodges who manned the hose at the end of the finish line chute watering the runners and himself. Marc Goddu presenting the men and women overall winners with a bottle

To the Committee itself who gave so much of themselves in making this such a success. Charlie Prefontaine whose Seaport Pharmacy was literally race headquarters (race results are in the window) was my man Friday. Bob Gardner, race historian, who must know everyone in town, founder of this July 4th madness. Joao Rodrigues who supervised the finish line so expertly. To my wife Marlene whose expertise in setting up and organizing the results room and putting up with me! Marc Goddu in supplying those excellent facilities for this important area. There are so many thanks to give out, suffice it to say you know who you are and to the great town of Mattapoisett to allow us to have "the happening"!

O.R. Tennis League

The Old Rochester Tennis League has reached the mid-point of its season. In its fourth season and featuring 11 two men teams, the league offers competition in men's advanced, men's intermediate, doubles and overall team standings.

In the men's advanced, top seed Bob Hohne has compiled a 4-0 mark including impressive wins over Bob LeBreque, Bill Hebert, and Bill Duggan and a come-from-behind victory over Ross Upton. Trailing 5 games to 8, Bob steadied his game and captured the last five games and the match 10-8. Second seed Jack Eddy and Len Crane hold second place with 3 victories apiece.

In the men's intermediate, Dave Moisan, the top seed, has proven too strong rolling over 5 straight opponents. Second place belongs to Bob Kelsey with a 3-1 mark while four other players battle for third place honors with two victories apiece.

The Doubles Division has the team of Dave Moisan and Bob LeBreque and their perfect 5-0 record including their most recent victory over Bob Hohne and Bob Fratte. Trailing 5-1, LeBreque and Moisan became more offense minded challenging the net man and rallied to an 11-9 victory. Second place features a tie with the teams of Ross Upton/Mike LaBossier and Bill Hebert/Bob Kelsey with a 3-1 record.

In the overall team standings the team of Moisan/LeBreque has opened a 6 point lead while building an overall record of 13-3. Second place, like the doubles, features a tie between the teams of Hebert/Kelsey and Upton/LaBossier.

The league has 6 weeks to go and competition is sure to heat up as the dog days of August approach. Most matches take place at the Center School courts in Mattapoisett, so stop by and watch the only league in town.

These forms, as approved by the MIAA, must be completed by parent or guardian before a physical may be given.

Dr. Moore will also conduct an additional examination period on Thursday, September 8th, for those students unable to attend either of the two August dates.

Failure of the student athlete to be examined on the assigned days will mean that he or she will not be permitted to participate until proof of physical examination at parents' expense is submitted to the Athletic Department on the approved medical form. Any student electing to be examined by his family physician may do so but it will be necessary for the physician to complete the approved form.

Letters to the Editor

I would like to take a moment to thank all the road race officials and all involved who made the July 4th race possible.

The people who worked for the race donated many hours, money, and effort for the benefit of all participants. After the race they worked as quickly as possible to get out the results. Sorting all the times and numbers must have been confusing and I think they did a great job. However, for the people who criticized, I offer a suggestion; why not get involved before and help out instead of waiting to criticize after?

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Senator Paul Tsongas has sent a bulletin to his constituents in which he discusses the recent report of the National Commission on Excellence in Education. He notes:

It found, for example, that 25 percent of the credits earned in the more recent period were in physical and health education, work experience outside the school, remedial English and mathematics, and personal service and development courses, such as training for marriage.

The Commission reached this conclusion: "Secondary school curricula have been homogenized, diluted, and diffused to the point that they no longer have a central purpose. In effect, we have a cafeteria-style curriculum in which the appetizers and desserts can easily be mistaken for the main courses."

The Commission suggests that no one should get a high school diploma without successfully completing four years of English; three years of math, science and social studies; and one-half year of computer science. (Personally, I would add one-half year of typing, except for those who can prove that they don't need it.) Also; stricter college entrance requirements, achievement tests during the course in high school, an overhaul of textbooks, and more homework.

It is recommended that teachers' contracts provide for a working year of eleven months, seven-hour school days, and from 200 to 220 of them a year. There should be an effective evaluation system to tie salary, promotions and tenure to teaching performance; and incentives to attract outstanding students to the teaching profession, particularly in those fields where critical shortages exist.

It is easy to see problems. The longer school days and more homework leave little or no time for athletics and other extra-curricular activities; or for jobs after school for either teachers or students.

Industrial productivity declines as fatigue increases; and there is no reason to assume that school productivity would be exempt. Many school buildings have forced air-circulation and windows that don't open or don't open much; but few in this latitude have air conditioning. They just were not designed for use in July and August.

The reaction of teachers to some of the proposals can be understood. The Report observes that the average pay for those with twelve years of experience is $17,000 a year. They cannot welcome the idea of hiring a university graduate in math or science at $25,000 a year or more to compete with the starting salaries in industry. Nor are they happy to think of a system of merit-pay that might undermine the security of their Union contracts and tenure rights. An added circumstance is that many teachers got their degrees from state teachers' colleges, where there is more emphasis on the techniques of teaching than on mastery of the subjects to be taught.

Money is a problem, as usual. In Massachusetts more than in most other states, the cost of the public schools has been paid out of real estate taxes. Proposition 2½ was a revolt against this system; largely in the hope that our Commonwealth, like other States, would assume the resulting burden. We have been disappointed during the King administration. The Dukakis administration has brought substantial added excise taxes; but it has also brought substantial added costs in its own overhead expenses.

As for the Federal Government with its growing deficits, the prospects for massive additional grants for public education don't look good.

Although it is heresy, I wonder whether we should reexamine the concept that every young person is entitled to a high school diploma and a college degree at the expense of the taxpayers so far as is necessary; and this without regard for individual circumstances.

James Bryant Conant was a leader among the professionals in education, as president at Harvard University and in other capacities. Over a generation ago he suggested that too many of those in the colleges would be better prepared for making a living by appropriate education in high schools, vocational schools, and junior colleges.

In England, there has been the system of "elevenses" - examinations given to children at age eleven to determine whether they are university material, and subsequent educational training prescribed accordingly.

Frankly, I don't think the "elevenses" idea would work in our own society. But perhaps some present-day educators would benefit from a study of Dr. Conant's ideas.

The report of the Commission is timely; and perhaps it is most timely in its advice to parents: "As surely as you are your child's first and more influential teacher, your child's ideas about education and its significance begin with you".

If that looks like "buck-passing", remember the motto of Harry S. Truman: "The buck stops here".

Mattapoisett Historical Society

The Museum on the corner of Church and Baptist Streets is open Tuesday through Saturday from 1 to 5 p.m.

"HELP!"

The first shipbuilding in Mattapoisett took place about 1700 at Brandt Island Cove. Trading sloops were built that plied the trade in the Buzzards Bay area carrying "wealth of the forest" -- cord wood, fence rails, posts, sawn timber and shingles, and barrels of tar and charcoal.

Later, around 1750, the first professional shipbuilders came and started establishing the shipyards along the waterfront between the foot of Pearl Street and Ship Street. With this development the center of Mattapoisett shifted from Old Hammondtown to "ye Lower New Town" along the waterfront.

Part of what makes Mattapoisett 'special' is that many, many of the houses built for the workers and owners and captains of the early 1800's and before still stand and are being lived in and enjoyed today. But the waterfront has changed from a bustling working place to the bustling pleasure place of today.

And so the reason for the "HELP!" plea at the beginning of this rambling. The Mattapoisett Historical Society has no pictures or photos of the wharves and shipyards of the mid-1800's depicting the activity of that era.

Is there anyone within the 'voice' of this plea who has an old photo of the wharves as they used to be -- piled high with

Hill, has been named one of eleven recipients of an Historic Conservation Award, announced recently by the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities.

The award of $2,000 will be used to conserve a rare body of surviving 19th Century architectural drawings, plans and account books. These materials will be included in the redesign and re-installation of the permanent exhibits surrounding the famous one-half scale model of the whaleship, Lagoda.

Funds for Council programs such as Historic Conservation originate in an appropriation recommended by the Governor and approved by the Legislature. Governor Dukakis and the Massachusetts legislators have demonstrated their strong support for the cultural community this year. Due to their efforts the Council will be able to increase its assistance to arts and humanities programs across the state.

The Whaling Museum is open Monday through Sunday (during the summer), 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. A whaling film is shown at 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. (2:00 p.m. on Sunday). Free Walking Tours of the Historic District are available between 11:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

and experience the "classic charm" of the 18th Century.

Although her design is more than 200 years old, the Peapod still ranks as one of the finest small boats available for sailing, recreational rowing, and as a yacht tender. Completely hand-laid in fiberglass and liberally trimmed in mahogany and brass, she features a centerboard and kickup rudder allowing easy exploration of our coastal marshlands. She can be car-topped, trailered, or hauled in the back of your pickup. Her fine lines and seaworthy characteristics make her the perfect example of traditional New England craftsmanship.

9:00 p.m. with an introduction to the Lepidoptera (the family which includes moths and butterflies) and will continue with a field walk to observe feeding behavior and capture techniques used to observe these beautiful animals.

Mr. Mello is presently working with the Lloyd Center to prepare a reference collection of the moths and butterflies in the region. Using nighttime trapping and baiting techniques over 300 species have already been captured and a sample of each species has been preserved. Participants in this evening program will learn how the research has been performed, the preservation and display of the collection and field identification. Mr. Mello believes that nearly 2500 species will eventually be identified as residents of this region.

Trees will be "baited" earlier in the evening of this walk with rotting bananas and other sweet, decomposing fruit. This will attract many of the moths and butterflies which normally are difficult to observe. After the classroom session the group will visit each of the baited trees to observe those animals which were attracted.

In addition to the baited trees, Mr. Mello will demonstrate his light trapping equipment and the methods employed in the trapping of moths which are drawn to the light over the course of the evening. The numbers and species will be compared to those which have been collected since early this spring.

All weekly walks offered by the Lloyd Center are free and open to the public.
